Advisory Action

Part of Paper No. 20041006

Continuation of 10. Other: In reply to applicant's first point (p. 14, center), the rejection (mailed on 18 August 2004, para. 8) is now based on US pat. 5,754,938 (Herz et al., not Hertz et al.). In reply to applicant's second point (also p. 14), please read the interview summary, which refers to the Stein reference. No agreement was "reversed" since the rejection is now based on Herz et al. As to the arguments on pp. 14-15, they are based on a piece-meal reading of Herz et al. Applicant's remaining points on pp. 15-17 are also based on piece-meal readings of the references. "One cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually" (MPEP 2145.IV). The examiner believes that one of skill in the art would readily understand how and why the references would be combined.
